

Ensure healthy lives and promote well-being for all at all ages

Education

IUG is one of the biggest providers of health care professionals by three faculties namely Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences. As detailed below, the number of current students of these schools

- Health sciences: 126
- Faculty of Medicine: 136
- Nursing: 257

Furthermore, Faculty of Medicine through HAYAT center provides training and professional diploma to the wider community, for instance, HAYAT center continue with the implementation of the diploma program in Anesthesia and intensive care.

Public Engagements

The university has strengthen its outreach and public engagement activities through organizing workshops, courses, conferences and signing partnerships agreement with national and international health organizations. Furthermore, in response to the deter psychological situation of children and women after war 2021, the counselling center has organized several public engagement activities including fun days, educational days for stress and Anxiety release.

Operations

Sports support programe serves to provide free and low-cost entry-level sport sessions for the University staff, students and wider community. Sports department employees facilitate students and staff engagement in sport activities.

Mental Health and counseling center:

The center has run several projects to address the needs of the community including partnership for psychological support project.

University Clinic

Through university clinic, IUG contribute to provide health services, for instance, total number of students and employees who benefited from the university clinic was 13961. Furthermore 799 Patients were from the wider community. In addition, the university clinic, continues to provide sexual and reproductive health care services for students.

Partnerships and collaborationPolicies and strategies

Due to the great damage caused by the habit of smoking, the Islamic University prevent all students and staff from smoking inside the buildings